Learn the Evidence-Based Instructional Strategies you need to help your students thrive as readers.

- Each course is five weeks; EDR 573 Reading Practicum is eight weeks
- Fieldwork can be completed in a classroom, summer school, camps, or a literacy program (50 hours total)
- May be used to renew your teaching license
- Prepares students to take the Ohio Assessment for Educators (OAE) exam (exam 038 and 039)
- Meets the International Literacy Association (ILA) standards and the Ohio Department of Education's Reading Competencies

Your required 15 total graduate credits must be completed in the following courses:

EDR 501	Literacy Theory and Reading Instruction Foundations	3
EDR 520	Explicit, Systematic, and Sequential Reading Instruction	3
EDR 571	Implementation of Structured Literacy Methods	3
EDR 572	Literacy Assessment, Evaluation, and Data-Driven Intervention	3
EDR 573	Reading Practicum Application	3

All candidates must meet all requirements for the Ohio 12 Hour Reading & Literacy Core prior to admission to this program. One separate course of at least three semester hours, or equivalent, in the teaching of phonics in the context of reading, writing, and spelling is required per Ohio Administrative Code (http://codes.ohio.gov/orc/3319.24).
