Take your nursing career to the next level with the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program at the Ursuline College Campus of Gannon University

Designed for nurses ready to expand their expertise, advance their careers, and make a greater impact on patient and community health, Ursuline's MSN program combines rigorous graduate-level education with a values-based approach to advanced nursing practice.

With flexible synchronous online and in-person classes, you'll earn your degree in a format that works with your professional and personal commitments. Choose from a variety of specialized tracks and gain the clinical knowledge, leadership skills, and evidence-based practice expertise needed to stand out in today's evolving healthcare landscape.

Backed by the nationally recognized Breen School of Nursing, Ursuline's MSN prepares you not only to advance your career, but to become a confident leader who transforms healthcare and the lives of those you serve.
