Our 20+ academic programs prepare students for direct access and immediate success in a wide range of professions.
English professor Katie Trostel spearheads Ursuline’s digital humanities initiative—a collaboration involving English, history, and historical preservation in which students use digital technologies to dive deeply into subjects and curate online exhibits.

Biology professor Jenise Snyder works with student researchers to examine the impact of Ursuline’s campus stream restoration on water quality. Every summer, she leads a group of students to Guatemala to study lake and human ecology.

As a past President of the Ohio Board of Nursing and member of the National Council of Nurses, Dr. Patricia Sharpnack, dean of Ursuline’s Breen School of Nursing and Health Professions, has advanced knowledge of nursing trends—allowing Ursuline nurses to graduate on the leading edge of their profession.

Successful scholars, scientists, clinicians, artists, and businesspeople, Ursuline faculty are here to teach, mentor, and guide you through the challenges and excitement of college while preparing you to make your unique contribution to the world.

Your Ursuline Blueprint
- Passion + Purpose
- Mentoring + Coaching
- Women's Leadership

So what is my Ursuline Blueprint, exactly?
The Ursuline Blueprint is a unique combination of experiences guaranteed to each undergraduate and including:
- classes you'll take
- books you'll read
- research you'll conduct
- group projects you'll tackle
- clubs & organizations you'll join (and maybe lead)
- conversations you'll have with mentors, advisors, faculty, and internship supervisors
- community work you'll embrace.

Applying

Apply for free online at ursuline.edu/apply or commonapp.org. We review applications on a rolling basis, but we recommend you apply by our priority deadline of November 1 for access to the best financial aid opportunities. Ursuline is a test-optional college. It is your decision whether you want to include your standardized test scores with your application.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

To make this education possible to you and the students who will be your classmates, we provide a range of scholarships, grants, loans, and work study opportunities.

Submit your FAFSA (a form used to determine your eligibility for financial aid) by December 1 to be considered for available aid at studentaid.gov.

As we review your application, you will be considered for a merit-based scholarship. Use our scholarship calculator to get a sense of what sort of assistance you might be eligible to receive: ursuline.edu/scholarshipcalculator
