Online Reading Endorsement

Looking to instill a love of reading in your students?

With Ursuline's online reading endorsement, you learn the strategies and instructional skills that you need to help your students thrive as readers.

- Start fall 2022!
- 5 online courses (each course is five weeks; EDR 573 Reading Practicum is eight weeks)
- Complete the endorsement in two semesters
- Fieldwork can be completed in a classroom, summer school, camps or a literacy program (50 hours total)
- Transfer credit accepted
- May be used to renew your teaching license
- Prepares students to take the Ohio Assessment for Educators (OAE) exam (exam 038 and 039)
- Meets the International Literacy Association (ILA) standards and the Ohio Department of Education's Reading Competencies

Online Course Requirements

Conveniently earn your graduate-level Ohio reading teacher endorsement completely online. Your required graduate credits must be completed in the following courses:

EDR 520	Systematic Phonics in Integrated Language Arts	3
EDR 570	Literacy Theory and Foundations	3
EDR 571	Advanced Methods of Literacy Instruction	3
EDR 572	Literacy Assessment, Evaluation, Intervention	3
EDR 573	Reading Practicum	3

Total Credits 15

Admission requirements include:

- Currently hold an Ohio teacher license
- Meet all Ursuline Graduate School admission requirements
- All candidates must meet all requirements for the Ohio 12 Hour Reading & Literacy Core prior to admission to the Reading Endorsement program. One separate course of at least three semester hours, or equivalent, in the teaching of phonics in the context of reading, writing, and spelling is required per Ohio Administrative Code (<http://codes.ohio.gov/orc/3319.24>).
