Receive credit for what you've already learned, and build a deeper understanding of the individual and the world.

Explore the art of being human—and humane—while enhancing your critical thinking and communication skills to prepare for a variety of career opportunities. Grounded in Ursuline's liberal arts tradition, the humanities program includes the study of art, music, history, philosophy, literature and religion, with plenty of flexibility for combining your interests and/or prior coursework into a single major. The program also serves as a foundation for graduate level study in any humanities field.
