A historically women’s college for ALL

Founded by the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland in 1871, Ursuline College became the first Catholic women’s college in Ohio. In the late 1960s we began admitting men to expand the holistic education we offer to transform all students for service, leadership, and professional excellence. Our mission is characterized by our Catholic and Ursuline heritage, women-centered learning, values-based curricula, and an inclusive, global perspective.

GANNON
UNIVERSITY

Ursuline College will join the Gannon University Community with a planned merger to be tentatively completed in late 2026. This partnership brings together two Catholic institutions with complementary strengths
and a unified dedication to values-based,
student-focused education.

Together, we're innovating the future of Catholic higher education in healthcare,
engineering, business, the arts and more.
